

GERMAN & AUSTRIAN SYMPHONIES

From The 19th Century To The Present

A Discography of CDs and LPs
Prepared by Michael Herman

Richard Strauss (1864-1949)

Born in Munich, the son of Franz Strauss, the principal horn player at the Court Opera in Munich. He wrote his first compositions at age six and studied the piano. He then received private instruction in music theory and orchestration from a conductor at the Court Opera, Friedrich Wilhelm Meyer as well as violin lesson from its concertmaster, Benno Walter. He studied music briefly in Berlin before being appointed assistant conductor to Hans von Bülow. The rest is history as he went on to become one of Germany's greatest composers as well as a world famous conductor. In his long life, he produced an enormous catalogue of operas, orchestral, chamber, piano, organ, choral and vocal works that have never lacked for performances.
