

FRENCH SYMPHONIES

From the Nineteenth Century To The Present

A Discography of CDs and LPs
Prepared by Michael Herman

Camille Saint-Saëns (1835-1921)

Born in Paris. Taught the piano by his great-aunt Charlotte Masson, he began his composing career at the age of 7. He studied at the Paris Conservatory where his teachers included François Benoist for organ and Jacques Fromental Halévy for composition. During a long life he produced an enormous amount of works in practically all genres from grand opera to works for solo instruments. His vast orchestral output includes, in addition to the Symphonies, 5 Piano Concertos, 3 Violin Concertos, 2 Cello Concertos, Suites, Symphonic Poems, Concert Overtures and a number of additional works for soloists and orchestra. He was often quoted as saying that he produced music as an apple tree produced apples.
